

Concord 20/20 and the Greater Concord Chamber of Commerce invite you to attend

KEEPING 21ST CENTURY CONCORD A VITAL COMMUNITY: Getting There from Here

Our national and regional economies are changing. The sustainability of our small but important nonprofits is in question. How do we plan for future transportation needs, the built environment and a robust economy that do so much for our quality of life? Join us and hear how one community in our neighboring state of Vermont addressed these critical issues. Guest speaker Len Cadwallader is executive director of Vital Communities, a regional nonprofit that works to engage citizens in community life and foster long term balance of cultural, economic, environmental and social well-being in the region. Len will share the story of why and how they formed this umbrella organization and how their successes might be applied here in the Capital Region.

Tuesday, APRIL 14 • 7:30-9:00 am
